"The 2017 Block 3 Pinot Noir has slightly darker fruit than the Block 5 and is initially sultry, but it only needs 30 minutes for the aromatics to gain intensity, revealing scents of black plum, raspberry, pressed iris and, like the 2016, just a hint of bergamot. The palate is very well structured yet undeniably approachable. Gentle in terms of grip, but there is genuine presence and satisfying length. Maybe the 2016 has more charm at the moment, but this follow-up feels almost crystalline towards the finish and urges you back for another sip. Just a wonderful Block 3."
